14 The Board shall have the power to decide all questions 15 involved in such protests, including the question of 16 whether any violation is sufficient to require invalidation of a particular Local Union nomination. 17

18 If a protest alleges that a candidate was properly 19 nominated by a particular Local Union but was not credited with that nomination because the return was not 20 21 received or was not received in timely fashion, and if the 22 International Executive Board determines that a candidate was in fact properly nominated by such Local Union, it 23 shall credit the candidate involved with such nomination. 24 25 The Board shall invalidate any protested Local Union 26 nomination if it finds that there was a violation which may 27 have affected the outcome of the nomination at that Local 28 Union.

Nomination protests are not subject to further review within the Union following the election. Each candidate for International Office or District 12 Director shall, upon request, following the International 13 Executive Board's disposition of all nomination protests 14 filed pursuant to Article V, Section 6, be entitled to obtain 15 from the International Secretary-Treasurer the information 16 concerning the date, place and hours of the election and 17 the place where the votes are to be tabulated in each Local 18 Union under procedures set forth in the International 19 Union Elections Manual.

Under no circumstances shall the votes of any Local Union be tabulated in any place other than the place so designated for such tabulation by the Local Union. No member shall be allowed to interfere with the official Local Union Tellers during the tabulation.

Section 11. No member shall be allowed more than one (1) vote for any candidate for a particular office, nor shall the Local Union Tellers record the vote of any member who is not present at the time the election is held, except that any member whose work will require the member to be more than fifty (50) miles away from the polling place and any member who is prevented from appearing at the polls because of service in the armed forces or vacation may cast an absentee ballot under procedures specified in the International Union Elections Manual.

3 Section 12. Each Local Union shall establish a 4 committee of Local Union Tellers. The committee shall 5 consist of the Local Union President, Financial and Recording Secretaries, who shall automatically be Local 6 Union Tellers. The Local Union may select additional Local 7 Union members to serve as Tellers on the committee. The Local Union Recording Secretary shall insert the numbers of the Local Union and District in the blank spaces on the envelope.

Section 16. When the "Return Sheets" reach the International Tellers, they shall examine the envelopes to see if they are intact, make a proper record of their receipt, and deposit them unopened in a securely locked receptacle provided for that purpose.

Section 17. The International Tellers shall retain the services of a public spirited and impartial organization experienced in the conduct of elections. The organization so retained by the International Tellers shall, under the supervision of the International Tellers, tabulate the votes cast for the various nominees and file this tabulation with the International Tellers.

Section 18. Except as hereinafter provided in Section 27, all contests in connection with the votes of any

Local Union must be received by the International Tellers 1 within fifteen (15) days of the election. Such contests can 2 be filed only by a member of the Local Union whose vote 3

4 is contested for any of the offices for which such Local

5 Union was voting, or by any candidate for the office for

6 which the member was running, in accordance with the

7 International Union Elections Manual to be adopted by the 8 International Executive Board.

Section 19. Except as hereinafter provided in 9 10 Section 27, the International Tellers shall decide the 11 legality of the votes of any Local Union. The International 12 Tellers shall not count the votes of any Local Union that 13 is not in good standing. The International Tellers shall 14 not count the votes of any Local Union that has cast more 15 votes than the number of members in good standing during 16 the month preceding the one in which the election is held unless and until they determine that there is a satisfactory 17 18 explanation therefore. The International Tellers shall not 19 count the votes of any Local Union whose "Return Sheet" 20 is not attested as required by Section 12 of this Article 21 unless and until they have investigated and verified that the 22 "Return Sheet" is authorized and accurate.

Section 20. The votes cast by members of each 24 Local Union shall be tabulated, and the results published 25 separately. The entire total vote shall also be tabulated. 26 The complete report shall be prepared and sent out to the 27 Local Unions, to each member or group of members of a 28 Local Union who filed a contest, and to each candidate 29 by the International Tellers not later than February 30 11, 2026. In the event the International Tellers refuse, 31 for any reason to tabulate the vote of any Local Union, their reason must in every instance be shown on their report. Any of those receiving a copy of the report of the International Tellers who disagree with the disposition by the International Tellers of a contest filed pursuant to Section 18 of this Article may file comments on the report with the International Executive Board. In addition, a candidate or an affected Local Union may file with the International Executive Board a contest to the report of the International Tellers if the contest arises initially out of the report of the International Tellers (for example, failure of the International Tellers to include in their tabulation the vote of a Local Union). Such a contest must be received within fifteen (15) days following the distribution of the report of the International Tellers.

Section 21. The International Executive Board shall consider the report of the International Tellers, the report of the Campaign Conduct Administrative Committee referred to in the last paragraph of Section 27 of this Article, any contest filed pursuant to Section 18 or Section 20 of this Article and any comments on either of these reports and shall render its decision on the election prior to March 1, 2026.

1 2 If a contest protests the failure to count a "Return 3 Sheet" because it was postmarked too late, received after 4 the International Tellers have issued their report, or was 5 not properly attested, and if the International Executive Board determines that the votes shown on the "Return 6 7 Sheet" accurately reflect a proper vote of the Local Union, then the International Executive Board shall count the 8 votes of the Local Union. If a contest alleges that a valid 9 10 election was held in a Local Union which failed to send 11 in its "Return Sheet" and the International Executive 12 Board determines that a Local Union did properly vote but 13 failed to send in its "Return Sheet," then the International 14 Executive Board shall credit each candidate with the

No other contests or appeals will be permitted.

17 Section 22. In case of a tie vote for any of the 18 candidates for a particular office, another election shall be 19 held for that office among the candidates involved in the tie.

The Local Union Tellers shall seal the 21 ballots on completion of their tabulation and shall turn over 22 such sealed ballots and all other records in their possession 23 pertaining to the election to the Recording Secretary at the 24 conclusion of their report to the Local Union. Such sealed 25 ballots and other records pertaining to the election shall 26 be retained by the Recording Secretary for at least one 27 (1) year. The Financial Secretary shall retain the records 28 in the Financial Secretary's possession pertaining to the 29 election for at least one (1) year.

7 Section 25. Local Union Tellers shall be held 8 personally responsible for any irregularities in connection 9 with the conduct of the elections in their Local Unions.

Section 26. It shall be the imperative duty of the Local the first regular meeting of their Local Union following the election, and it shall be further the duty of the Local Union Recording Secretary to make a complete record of same in the minutes of said meeting.

MANUAL

Opening of Meeting

The hour of the meeting having arrived, the President shall take the chair and give one rap with the gavel, upon which all officers and members shall be seated. If no regular Guards are present, the President shall appoint one of the members to see that none but members of the Union are admitted.

President: The time for opening this meeting having arrived, I declare this meeting duly convened and qualified to consider measures tending to conserve the best interest of this Local Union, and the United Steelworkers.

ORDER OF BUSINESS FOR CONDUCTING LOCAL UNION MEETINGS

- 1. Call meeting to order.
- 2. Roll call of officers by Recording Secretary.
- Reading of the minutes of the previous meeting.
 After the minutes have been read by the Recording Secretary a motion must be made and seconded that the minutes be "approved" (or adopted) as read. Such a motion means that in the opinion of the members, the Secretary has recorded the minutes of the previous meeting correctly. Should the reading reveal any errors or omissions, a member may move to correct the minutes. If this motion is carried, another motion should follow that the minutes "as corrected" now be approved.

IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT BRIEF, COMPREHENSIVE MINUTES OF EACH MEETING BE KEPT BY THE RECORDING SECRETARY. THESE MINUTES ARE THE OFFICIAL RECORD OF THE BUSINESS TRANSACTED BY THE LOCAL UNION MEETING. A REGULAR BOOK IS PROVIDED BY THE INTERNATIONAL UNION FOR THIS PURPOSE AND SHOULD ALWAYS BE KEPT UP TO DATE.

4. Reading of Communications.

RECORDING SECRETARY: The Recording Secretary reads the letters which require attention. Those which do not require much discussion may be dealt with immediately; others may be laid over to "New Business" or referred to a standing committee. If no action is required or desired, the communications may be read and, upon a motion, filed. The Recording Secretary keeps the files of the Local Union.

5. Report of Officers.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY: The Financial Secretary should make a detailed financial report at least once each month at the Local Union meeting covering the receipts and expenditures of all funds of the Local Union. If the expenses of the Local Union exceed its current income or impair its reserves, the Financial Secretary is obligated to call this fact to the attention of the membership.

TREASURER: The Treasurer is the custodian of the Local Union funds. The Treasurer should report to each meeting the money received from all sources, such as rebates from the International Office and other monies turned over to the Treasurer for deposit by the Financial Secretary. The Treasurer should be certain that the amount reported by the Financial Secretary to the Local Union as having been turned over agrees with what the Treasurer actually received and that the Recording Secretary records the amount in the minutes.

TRUSTEES: The Trustees are the custodians of the hall and all property of the Local Union subject to the direction of the Local Union. They shall audit the books and financial records of the Local Union every three (3) months and give a report of such audit at the next regular Local Union meeting.

- 6. Report of Organizer or International Representative.
- 7. Initiation of New Members.
- 8. Report of Special Committees.Such as: Celebrations, picnics, relief, citizenship, etc.
- 9. Reports of Standing (or Permanent) Committees.
 - a. Grievance Committee.
 - b. Report of delegates to Federation Council.

10. Unfinished Business.

These matters are those remaining over from previous meetings. They are usually recorded in the minutes of the previous meeting. The Recording Secretary should inform the President of any unfinished business so it may be included in the order of business in this section.

11. New Business.

These are matters which have been laid aside earlier in the meeting or which have come up since the last meeting.

12. Good and Welfare.

All miscellaneous matters for the good of the Union which should be brought to the attention of the meeting should come to the floor at this time. These matters usually do not require any action by the meeting. They are simply matters of information and education.

13. Adjournment.

PRESIDENT: The business of this meeting having been duly transacted, I declare it adjourned until our next regular session, unless you are especially called together, when I hope to see all members present. NOTE: All money paid out by the Local Union from its treasury must be approved by the members at a Local Union meeting. Bills charged to the Local Union should be submitted to the Recording Secretary, who in turn submits them to the Local Union meeting for approval. If the Local Union agrees that the bills should be paid a motion should be made, seconded and passed authorizing the Treasurer to draw up a check and pay the bill. All Local Union checks must be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by the Financial Secretary and the President.

Under no circumstances is it legal for officers or members to pay bills without authorization by a Local Union meeting, nor shall the members authorize payment of any bill or incur any obligation for which funds are unavailable, nor shall the members authorize the payment of or incur a debt for any activity not in accordance with the Constitution and policies of the International Union and the By Laws for Local Unions. Under no circumstances shall any of the cash dues or fees collected be spent before it is sent to the International Secretary-Treasurer.

It is of prime importance that the Trustees shall audit the books and financial records of the Local Union every three (3) months and give a report of such audit at the next regular Local Union meeting. The Trustees should give special attention when checking disbursements recorded by the Financial Secretary and Treasurer that proper authorization for such payments have been entered by the Recording Secretary in the Minutes of the Local Union. (Constitution: Article VII, Section 4; Article VIII, Section 6. By Laws for Local Unions: Article V.)

INITIATION OF NEW MEMBERS

President - Raise your right hand.

"Recognizing that the United Steelworkers is a strong labor organization dedicated to the advancement of my interests and the interests of all workers and that the strength of the Union depends on the commitment which its members make to it and to each other, I do sincerely promise, of my own free will, to abide by the laws of this Union; to bear true allegiance to, and keep inviolate the principles of the United Steelworkers; never to discriminate against a fellow worker on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disability, nationality, or other legally protected status; to defend freedom of thought, whether expressed by tongue or pen, to defend on all occasions and to the extent of my ability the members of our organization, and never to reveal to any employers or their agent a member's name without proper authorization. I will cease work when authorized and approved by the organization to do so.

That I will look upon my fellow members of this Union as my brothers and sisters and will never knowingly wrong a member or see a member wronged if I can prevent it. That I will assist all members of our organization to obtain the highest wages possible for their work; that I will not accept a member's job who is idle for advancing the interests of the Union or seeking better remuneration for the member's labor; and, as the workers of the entire country are competitors in the labor world, I promise to provide my solidarity and support whenever I am called upon by the organization to do so. And I further promise to help and assist all members in adversity, and encourage all workers to organize and join our Union in order to enjoy more fully the fruits of their labor.

To all this I pledge my honor and I further pledge that at every opportunity I shall 'Say A Good Word About My Union."

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

I,, do hereby sincerely pledge my honor to perform the duties of my office as prescribed by the Laws of the organization, and to bear true allegiance to the United Steelworkers. I will deliver to my successor in office all books and other property of this Union that may be in my possession at the close of my official term. All of this I solemnly promise, with full knowledge that to violate this pledge is to stamp me as a person devoid of principle and destitute of honor.

BURIAL SERVICE

FRIENDS, NEIGHBORS, BROTHERS AND SISTERS:

We have gathered today around the last resting place of that earthly tenement which has been the temporary abiding place of the life and spirit of our departed Brother (Sister). With bowed heads and saddened hearts we have followed his (her) remains to this place in order that we may be able to show this last tribute of respect to the memory of one whose virtues we appreciate and whose faults, if he (she) had any, we are eager to forget. We have known him (her), he (she) was one of us, and our hearts grieve at his (her) departure, as the heart of man always grieves at the loss of some cherished object of affection that can never be replaced, yet our grief is not inconsolable. Of what consequence is a few years to the age of man when compared with God's infinity? When we think of the many years that have rolled into eternity since time began and the countless ages yet to come ere time shall be no more, we realize that the short period allotted to man on this earth is but the first self conscious gleam of man's eternal soul. We are not as men without hope, for the Psalmist has said, "Man that is born of woman is full of trouble and sorrow. He cometh forth like a flower and is cut down. Our years of labor are brought to an end, our dust shall return to dust as it was, and our spirit to the God who gave it." Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust.

Though the seasons may change, and the years pass away, the remembrance of our Brother (Sister) shall never fade until we, too, have been gathered to the place that has been prepared for us.

We sympathize with $$\begin{cases} \text{those dear to} \\ \text{the family of} \end{cases}$$

our deceased Brother (Sister) in their bereavement, and would commend them to the tender care of Him who holds the destinies of mankind in the hollow of His hand, and who is able to console the spouse and orphan when the words of man are vain.

Let us pray.

Our Father who art in Heaven, we bow before Thee in humble submission to Thy will. Our hearts are sore with the sorrow of bereavement. We come to Thee for consolation. Grant, O Lord, that the balm of Thy healing spirit may be poured down upon us like the balm of Gilead to our wounded hearts. May the peace that passeth all understanding, which Thou alone can give, abide with the family of our deceased Brother (Sister). Comfort them in their affliction. Guide us all in the paths of righteousness while we live, and when we are done with this life receive us into that home which Thou hast prepared for all Thy children, eternal in the Heavens. Amen.

BENEDICTION

And now may the grace, mercy and peace of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, rest and abide with you now and forever. Amen.
